

CURRICULUM VITAE

Gerardo Bugallo Ottone, born on 21.09.1954 in Madrid, Spain.

Married, two children.

Bachelor of Law, Universidad Complutense, Madrid.

Master of International Studies at the Diplomatic School, Madrid.

- 1984 Beginning of diplomatic career
- 1984 2nd class Secretary
- 1984 Chief Director for the Caribbean Section, of the Director of Foreign Policy for Latin-American, at the Spanish Department of Foreign Affairs.
- 1984 Counsellor at the Spanish Embassy in Argel, Algeria
- 1986 1st class Secretary
- 1987 Minister-Counsellor at the Spanish Embassy in Budapest, Hungary.
- 1988 1st class Secretary of Embassy.
- 1990 Deputy Consul General of Spain in New York, USA (Cultural Affairs).
- 1992 Embassy Counsellor
- 1993 Counsellor at the Office of Foreign Policy for Europe at the Spanish Department of Foreign Affairs.
- 1994 Deputy Director General for North America at the Spanish Department of Foreign Affairs.
- 1996 Cultural Counsellor at the Spanish Embassy in Tokyo, Japan.
- 2001 Member of the Council for Foreign Affairs of the President of the Government of Spain.
- 2002 Director General of Foreign Policy for the North America and Asia-Pacific Region at the Spanish Ministry of Foreign Affairs.
- 2006 Deputy Head of Mission of the Spanish Delegation at the UN in Geneva, Switzerland. Spanish Ambassador to the Conference of Disarmament.
- 2009 Consul General of Spain in Sydney, Australia.

Decorations:

Officer of the Spanish Merit Civil Order, 1993.

Officer of the Order of the Queen Isabel the Catholic, 1999

Commander of the Order of the Rising Sun with Golden Rays and Neck Ribbon of Japan.